

COVERAGE PROVIDED BY MILITARY FOR FINANCIAL NEEDS OF SEXUAL ASSAULT VICTIMS

Financial Need	Coverage for ACTIVE-DUTY Victims	Coverage for DEPENDENT Victims	Coverage for OTHER Victims
MEDICAL / MENTAL HEALTH CARE
• SAFE exam, STD testing, and prophylactic medications	Total (TRICARE)	Total (TRICARE)	None*
• Psychiatric medications and treatment	Total (TRICARE)	Partial (TRICARE until accused's separation)	None*
• Services with caps (e.g., outpatient psychotherapy)	Total (TRICARE)	Partial (TRICARE until accused's separation)	None*
• Exempted services (e.g., Eye Movement Desensitization & Reprocessing)	None*	None*	None*
LOST INCOME
• Lost Wages	Total (Service continues pay)	Partial (6-36 mos.) (Transitional Compensation, defer or waiver of court-martial forfeitures)	None*
TRAVEL/RELOCATION COSTS
• Transportation of victim and moving expenses	Possible (DoD expedited transfer)	Possible (DoD personal safety move)	None*
• Security deposit for current apt. and liability for remainder of lease	None*	Partial (Transitional Compensation)	None*
• Security deposit for new apartment	None*	Partial (Transitional Compensation)	None*
• Court-martial attendance for victim	Total (in most cases) (Convening Authority)	Total (in most cases) (Convening Authority)	Total (in most cases) (Convening Authority)
• Attendance at other hearings where victim is not a witness	None Guaranteed* (Convening Authority Discretion)	None*	None*
PERSONAL PROPERTY LOSS/DAMAGE
• E.g., cell phones, computers	Possible Article 139 or PCA	Possible Art. 139 or PCA (if DoD employee)	Possible Art. 139
FUTURE LOSSES
• Known at sentencing (e.g., pain and suffering)	None (Feres bar)	Possible (FTCA claim in civilian courts)	Possible (FTCA claim in civilian courts)
• Medical issues unknown at sentencing (e.g., delayed-onset PTSD)	Possible (Veterans Affairs)	Possible (FTCA claim in civilian courts)	Possible (FTCA claim in civilian courts)

* Red indicates that compensation may be available from private health insurer or state/local Crime Victim Compensation program

 "Separation" does not occur until the appellate process is complete and the Convening Authority has taken final action to execute the discharge. Dependents remain enrolled in DEERS and entitled to TRICARE/CHAMPUS, commissary, and PX privileges until separation is final.