

Summary of Reading Materials for JPP Subcommittee Members in Preparation for September 17 Meeting

Tab 1. Summary of Deliberations with Working Group Recommendations (20 pages).

- Prepared by JPP Subcommittee Staff. Summarizes the status of the deliberations on all 17 issues, including whether a consensus has been adopted or whether further deliberation on an issue is necessary.

Tab 2. Pages from August Subcommittee Transcript Containing Deliberations Session on Issues 12-17 (Coercive and Abuse of Authority Sexual Misconduct Offenses)(83 pages).

- Transcript pages containing the subcommittee members' discussions and deliberations regarding the six issues referred to it by the JPP on coercive and abuse of authority sexual misconduct offenses.

Tab 3. Additional Written Remarks Provided by Major Mary Ellen Payne, USAF, In Follow-Up to Her Statements at the August Subcommittee Meeting (4 pages).

- Written remarks provided by Major Payne regarding the six issues on coercive and abuse of authority sexual misconduct offenses.
- Major Payne states she believes the current definition of “threatening or placing in fear” should be amended to ensure that coercive sexual relationships or those involving abuse of authority are covered, she is opposed to making consensual sexual relationships between trainers and trainees per se illegal under Article 120, and she believes the current methods of charging these offenses under Article 92 or other articles is appropriate.

Tab 4. Report of Article 32 Investigation - United States Coast Guard - Redacted (19 pages).

- Report of investigation in Coast Guard case involving Ms. Elisha Morrow, a constituent of Congresswoman Frankel, who will be a witness during the morning session of the meeting.
- This document was provided by Ms. Morrow to the JPP at its September 2014 public meeting, at which Congresswoman Lois Frankel and Ms. Morrow provided testimony.

Tab 5. Article 34 Advice Letter - United States Coast Guard - Redacted (4 pages).

- Staff Judge Advocate's legal advice letter to Convening Authority in Ms. Morrow's case.
- This document was provided to the JPP by the U.S. Coast Guard, Office of Military Justice, following its September 2014 public meeting.
