

JPP RFI6 Att 3 - Victim Access to Information

Sexual Assault Case Information Necessary for Victim Representation and Protection of Article 6b Rights	What specific information or documentation is provided? Must it be requested or is it automatic?	When in the process is it available or provided?	Who is responsible for providing the information or response?	How is the information requested or provided?	Governing Service policy or other relevant Service guidance
1. Status of the investigation
2. Copy of a victim's statement, interview, or video taken by investigators
3. Copy of other physical or documentary evidence produced or provided by the victim
4. Notice of pre-trial status or change in status of the accused
5. Notice of pre-trial confinement hearing
6. Notice of preferral of charges and nature of the charges pertaining to the victim
7. Notice of decision not to prefer charges and explanation of decision
8. Copy of the Article 32 IO appointment letter
9. Copy of the charge sheet
10. Notice of the scheduling, including changes and delays, of the Article 32 hearing
11. Notice of the scheduling, including changes and delays, of hearings or other proceedings related to MRE 412, 513, or 514 evidence that pertain to the victim (prior to referral)

JPP RFI6 Att 3 - Victim Access to Information

Sexual Assault Case Information Necessary for Victim Representation and Protection of Article 6b Rights	What specific information or documentation is provided? Must it be requested or is it automatic?	When in the process is it available or provided?	Who is responsible for providing the information or response?	How is the information requested or provided?	Governing Service policy or other relevant Service guidance
12. Copies of motions and responsive pleadings related to M.R.E. 412, 513, or 514 evidence that pertain to the victim (prior to referral)
13. Copies of any other motion(s) and responsive pleadings that may involve a victim's Article 6b rights (prior to referral)
14. Copy of recording or transcript of victim's testimony at the Article 32 hearing
15. Copy of Article 32 report/advice
16. Notice of referral and nature of charges
17. Notice of decision not to refer charges and explanation of decision
18. Notice of the scheduling, including changes and delays, of the court-martial
19. Notice of R.C.M. 802 conferences
20. Notice of the scheduling, including changes and delays, of hearings or other proceedings related to MRE 412, 513, or 514 evidence (after referral)
21. Notice of the scheduling, including changes and delays, of any other hearings or other proceedings that may pertain to the Article 6b rights of a victim (after referral)
22. Copies of motions and responses related to M.R.E. 412, 513, or 514 evidence that pertain to the victim (after referral)

JPP RFI6 Att 3 - Victim Access to Information

Sexual Assault Case Information Necessary for Victim Representation and Protection of Article 6b Rights	What specific information or documentation is provided? Must it be requested or is it automatic?	When in the process is it available or provided?	Who is responsible for providing the information or response?	How is the information requested or provided?	Governing Service policy or other relevant Service guidance
23. Copies of other motion(s) and responses in the case that may involve a victim's Article 6b rights (after referral)
24. Notice of negotiation of a pre-trial agreement
25. Notice of the acceptance of a pre-trial agreement
26. Notice of the acceptance of a guilty plea or announcement of findings
27. Notice of the sentence imposed, including the date on which the accused becomes eligible for release from confinement, or parole, if applicable.
28. Notice when the accused is released from confinement or is transferred to a different location.
29. Copy of record of trial if victim testified
30. Notice of any public proceeding of the clemency and parole board
31. Notice of any appellate review of the case					