USA	Victims may also utilize Army Legal Assistance client satisfaction surveys. The SVC Program is analyzing whether there is a need for additional surveys.
USAF	The Air Force does use Victim Impact Surveys; see JPP RFI 115.
USN	Yes. See #152.
USMC	While DoD is actively surveying victims of sexual assault in all the Services, the Marine Corps VLCO has made a decision not to survey its clients. When DoD has completed its surveys, the VLCO will consider conducting a client survey in order to measure VLCO performance.
USCG	The Coast Guard currently utilizes two victim satisfaction surveys, one from SARC and from SVC. The SVC survey is provided online at https://surveys.uscg.mil/Community/se.ashx?s=6F20F7740184A6D1 but due to the limited number of responses, there are no reports produced as a result of the survey.
