CASE PRESENTATIONS

BEHIND CLOSED DOORS

KERRY-ANN Z. FRAZIER

Behind Closed Doors is a personal experience of living as a domestic violence victim as a well-known master level social worker, soccer mom, and military spouse. It describes the cycle of violence, focusing on signs before the marriage to the progression of violence from pre-battering to battering stage. This presentation also outlines the stages of change and the thinking process of the victim, outlining barriers to leaving vs. reasons for staying. This moving and personal presentation discusses the military family component, as well as a faith-based component. Finally, the presentation explains how the survivor used her experience to build a program within a police department to bring awareness, education, and resources to the department, the military, and the civilian community.

CHARLES MARQUEZ AND THE "222 GIRLS": A DOMESTIC AND INTERNATIONAL SEX TRAFFICKING INVESTIGATION

PETER ANGELL, ANTHONY MIRANDA, JENNIFER ROMERO

From 2010 to late 2013, Homeland Security Investigations (HSI) and the FBI in El Paso, Texas investigated Charles Marquez, the Operator of a long running, well-established escort service known to its customers as the "222 Girls." Marquez recruited both juveniles and adult women from the United States and Mexico for forced prostitution in Texas, New Mexico, and Colorado using fraudulent employment ads, then used coercion and threats of physical harm, immigration enforcement, and harming victims' families to maintain their compliance. The investigation resulted in the identification and recovery of dozens of victims and led to the arrest and conviction of Marquez by jury trial in 2013. Marquez received multiple life sentences as a result of his conviction. This presentation will not only share best practices and investigative techniques, but will focus on Marquez's use of force, fraud, and coercion for victim compliance, the use of "johns" as witnesses, and working through challenges with victims.

THE DOG THAT DIDN'T BARK IN THE NIGHT

KIRSTA MELTON

On New Year's Day, Dana Clair Edwards' parents found her lying dead on the floor of her guest bathroom. The autopsy revealed blunt force trauma and ligature strangulation. An investigation fraught with missteps led back to her ex-boyfriend, a mild mannered, middle-aged man from San Antonio's Alamo Heights community. With no history of domestic violence, lost evidence and no eyewitnesses, the prosecution faced a daunting challenge. Celebrity attorney Dick DeGuerin led the defense. Participants will explore the use of cell phone data and the legal issues attending it, ways to mitigate or even turn investigatory weaknesses into strengths, and the importance of comprehensive case strategy in circumstantial murder cases.

MISSING AND PRESUMED DEAD: THE MURDER OF KELSEY MILLER

JON SUNDERMEIER

This presentation involves the murder of a young wife and mother at the hands of her abusive husband. It presented as a missing person case reported by local advocates after the victim, who was in a shelter after a strangulation incident, disappeared. Her husband confessed after her dismembered body was found in a storage unit. Takeaways include working with confidentiality issues, investigative strategies when you believe your victim is dead, crime scene and forensic lessons learned, social media and other electronic evidence, interviewing a probable psychopath, and dealing with the aftermath of horrific violence.

THE MURDER OF DANIELLE ACOSTA-GUERRERO: FAMILY VIOLENCE HOMICIDE

FREDERICK HARRIS, SHEILAH PRIORI

This presentation will examine the investigation of the brutal 2012 Killeen, Texas murder of Danielle Acosta-Guerrero. Danielle suffered a horrific stabbing death in front of her six-year-old son at the hands of David Michael Vega, her ex-boyfriend. Vega also strangled the boy repeatedly until he thought he was dead. When police arrived on the scene, they found the child clutching his mother's body covered in her blood. This presentation will address the forensic nurse examination of the only eyewitness to this devastating crime, the 911 call, investigation, and lessons learned from a homicide detective and forensic nurse examiner.

TRAFFICKING BEHIND CLOSED DOORS

AUDREY STONE

This presentation is based upon an international human trafficking case that took place in a suburban town outside of New York City. From a remote location, the defendant trolled internet au pair websites where he would lure young women to his home. Posing as a woman who represented an elderly man, he promised the women lucrative pay and experience. Once they arrived, he soon turned them into his personal sex slaves. Participants will learn about the investigative techniques that brought the case to successful prosecution, specifically: interview techniques used to earn the victims' trust and cooperation, use of computer forensics to develop evidence and identify victims internationally, methods for cooperation between local, state, and federal law enforcement, and the use of partnerships with local advocacy services.

Jackson Katz, Ph.D. is an American educator, author, filmmaker, and cultural theorist who is internationally recognized as a pioneer in gender violence prevention education and critical media literacy. In 1993 he co-founded Mentors in Violence Prevention (MVP), one of the most widely implemented and influential sexual and relationship abuse prevention programs in schools, sports culture, and the military in North America and beyond. MVP introduced the "bystander" approach to the gender violence prevention field; Katz is one of the key architects of this now broadly popular approach. He also created the award-winning documentaries Tough Guise and Tough Guise 2 and is the author of The Macho Paradox: Why Some Men Hurt Women and How All Men Can Help, and Leading Men: Presidential Campaigns and the Politics of Manhood. He lectures extensively in the U.S. and around the world on violence, media, and masculinities.
